Thank you.

The US EPA has prepared the following information resource:

EPA is committed to working closely with response agencies and state and local officials to ensure the safety of citizens, respond to concerns and to evaluate impact to water contaminated by the Gold King Mine Release. EPA is sharing information as quickly as possible with the public as experts work to evaluate any effects the spill may have on drinking water, public health, agriculture, fish and wildlife. Please see our website for the latest information: <http://www2.epa.gov/goldkingmine>
Regular updates will be posted as they are available.

EPA,

I just wanted to say I appreciate your efforts to keep everyone informed about this spill. And, I for one, do not blame you, but blame the mining companies who walked away from this mess, leaving it for the Fed government to clean up. Sure, it didn't work out for EPA as planned, but you are doing a great job providing information and providing an easy-to-follow path to compensation with this website.

Way to go, EPA!

Thanks!
